

For completion by Scout/Explorer applicant

Can you briefly tell us why you want to attend the 2011 World Scout Jamboree?

Representing the UK at a World Jamboree is an honour and a once in a lifetime opportunity. To ensure that all successful applicants get the most from their Jamboree experience, a number of preparation events will be held. These events will consist of full weekends and full or half day activities. It is anticipated to hold a preparation event once every two/three months. Successful applicants will be expected to attend all of these preparation events. In addition, successful applicants will be expected to undertake and participate in fundraising events.

I have read the 'Frequently Asked Questions' sheet and I acknowledge the commitment involved in attending the World Scout Jamboree should I be selected and I agreed that should I be selected I will continue to attend my own Scout troop and Explorer Scout units throughout the run up to the jamboree and if currently a Scout, at the appropriate time join an Explorer Scout Unit:
